We are pleased to be able to offer our locally produced, handmade artisan breads & bakery goods delivered to you with total traceability and low road miles, which in today's society are key factors for customers who are looking for quality produce & provenance.

All our breads & bakery goods are hand made to the highest quality, using only the finest ingredients.

We can also provide own labelling with company logo, allergens & use by dates, if required.

Please contact us to discuss your requirements and to arrange for samples to be supplied for you to try.

Some items are subject to minimum order.
